DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of the appeal brief filed on December 23, 2005, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED. A new ground of rejection is set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) initiate a new appeal by filing a notice of appeal under 37 CFR 41.31 followed by an appeal brief under 37 CFR 41.37. The previously paid notice of appeal fee and appeal brief fee can be applied to the new appeal. If, however, the appeal fees set forth in 37 CFR 41.20 have been increased since they were previously paid, then appellant must pay the difference between the increased fees and the amount previously paid.

A Supervisory Patent Examiner (SPE) has approved of reopening prosecution by signing below:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 1-6, 10-18 and 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kroll (US 6,700,895) in view of Welin (US 6,975,629).

Regarding to claim 1, 14 and 20, Kroll teaches a method of voice optimization in a packet switched network, comprising: initializing default parameters for end-point devices on a network with respect to jitter buffer size 210; measuring performance parameters of a network 212-280; and evaluating whether the measured performance parameters signify that a connection to the network is below a desired level of operation 194 and, if so, adjusting the default parameters for the end-point devices based on the evaluating 196. Kroll, however, does not teach initializing default parameters with respect to choice of preferred CODEC and number of voice samples per packet. Welin teaches initializing default parameters with respect to choice of preferred CODEC and number of voice samples per packet (Column 18 Line 4-14). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify to initialize default parameters with respect to choice of preferred CODEC and number of voice samples per packet as taught by Welin in order to optimize the system in real time (Column 18 Line 20-25).

Regarding to claim 2, 18 and 23, Kroll teaches the adjusting includes performing functions that are selected from a group consisting of re-negotiating a CODEC connection, re-setting of parameters for the packet size and re-setting the jitter buffer 196.

Regarding to claim 3, 5, 11, 15 and 21, Kroll teaches the performance parameters being measured are selected from a group consisting of throughput, latency, packet loss, bandwidth, number of network hops to the end-point devices, round trip delay and any combination thereof 280.

Regarding to claim 4, 6, 16, 17 and 22, Kroll teaches the measuring is performed with at least one tool selected from a group consisting of a ping tool, a network trace tool and a packet loss measurement tool (Column 2 Line 36-39).

Regarding to claim 10, Kroll teaches measuring and evaluating existing performance parameters with respect to quality of connection 212-280, the initializing being based on the evaluating 196.

Regarding to claim 12, Kroll teaches evaluating the measured performance parameters with respect to quality of connection 212-280 and performing the adjusting as a result of the evaluating 196.

Regarding to claim 13, Kroll teaches the adjusting is carried out during transmission of media to the end-point devices (Column 6 Line 55-64).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 7-9, 19 and 24 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
